

MISSIONARY DIRECTORY

Thank you for remembering our missionaries in your prayers.

PRAYER & MISSIONS

Prayer is our first work in the harvest. And the reason is not hard to find. It is this: the harvest has a Lord. He oversees the harvest. Someone supplies the workers. Someone controls the progress. And that someone is God. Our first business is not to look at the size of the harvest. Our first business is to pray to our God.

Tom Wells

In this supernatural cause (world missions), which rests on a supernatural charter and is led by an omnipotent leader with all His power pledged to support it, a neglect of prayer is actually a denial that God is leading.

Robert Speer

Devote yourselves to prayer, being watchful and thankful. And pray for us, too, that God may open a door for our message, so that we may proclaim the mystery of Christ, for which I am in chains. Pray that I may proclaim it clearly, as I should.”

Colossians 4:2-4 NIV

Finally, brothers, pray for us that the message of the Lord may spread rapidly and be honored, just as it was with you. And pray that we may be delivered from wicked and evil men, for not everyone has faith.

2 Thessalonians 3:1-2 NIV

What does Jesus call us to pray? “Your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven.” This vision is bigger than MTW, bigger than the PCA; it is a vision to see God’s glory fill the earth. Our vision is to see people transformed by the gospel, to see families reconciled, communities reflecting the ethics of the kingdom of God, and the nations worshipping our Lord and Savior. That’s how the Lord is moving us forward, with a vision bigger than ourselves.

Lloyd Kim

Dear Praying Friend,

I remember a conversation I had with missionary colleagues several years ago. We were discussing our roles on the team for the coming year, and the husband was talking about how he hoped to do a certain number of medical outreaches, Bible studies, medical trainings, etc. The conversation then turned to his wife, who spent most of her time as a homemaker. She paused as she thought of her role and then said, "Well at least I can pray." I turned to her and said, "Your role is probably the most important on our team!"

We often hear the phrase, "We don't pray for the work of missions; prayer is the work of missions." Or as English evangelist Leonard Ravenhill has said, "Prayer is not preparation for the battle, it is the battle!" I cannot tell you how true this statement is. Eda and I remember very fondly our time on the field as missionaries; how after we had sent out prayer requests to our supporters, there was a tangible lifting of our burdens, or powerful movements of the Holy Spirit drawing people to himself. God hears our prayers and uses them to advance His work.

So please join us in our mission of making disciples among the nations by lifting up His servants and these prayer requests to our heavenly Father. May His gospel of the kingdom advance throughout the world!

Sincerely,

Lloyd Kim

Mission to the World

OUR VISION

THE GOSPEL OF THE KINGDOM ADVANCING THROUGHOUT THE WORLD

We want the gospel to spread throughout the world, the Church to grow, Satan's kingdom destroyed, and Christ's reign extended to the ends of the earth.

OUR MISSION

MAKING DISCIPLES AMONG ALL NATIONS

We are called to be obedient to the Great Commission by teaching people to follow Jesus as Lord and Savior, to be baptized, and to obey all that Jesus commands.

COMMITTEE ON MISSION TO THE WORLD

I urge you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to join me in my struggle by praying to God for me.

I Corinthians 15:10

MTW is grateful for the faithful leadership of each member of the Committee on Mission to the World. This group not only gives oversight to our ministry (on behalf of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America), but they are also participants in it, providing wisdom and encouragement for our mission.

HOW SHOULD WE PRAY?

Have you noticed that missionaries almost always say that their greatest need is prayer? Perhaps you sometimes think that is just what they are supposed to say—the standard missionary speech. The real issue is the money, right?

The truth is, without prayer, the money is useless. Through the ages, missionaries have known that only God can save the lost, heal the sick, or accomplish anything for His kingdom. And He chooses to work through prayer. Jesus said, “I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Son may bring glory to the Father. You may ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it” John 14:13-14.

How should we pray? Is it enough to say “God bless Bill and Beth”? Praying daily for the needs of missionaries and their ministries can be difficult if we are not in close contact with them. But in order to keep our prayers fervent and consistent, drawing us into closer communion with God, we often need more specific direction.

Most missionaries, regardless of their location or ministry, have some needs in common, simply because they are missionaries. And, like all of us, missionaries are fallen people in need of God’s daily grace at work in their lives.

There is a nine-week prayer guide on the following pages with one significant request for each day of the week. There is a category for each week, with a specific prayer need for each day of the week. Weeks one through five are missionary specific, while weeks six through nine are directed at missions in general. We urge you to communicate with your own missionaries so that you might know other prayer needs as well as how to apply each day’s request in even more specific ways. Once you have prayed through Week Nine, you could begin again with Week One.

God does nothing but by prayer, and everything with it.

John Wesley

WEEKLY PRAYER GUIDE

Faithfulness in Ministry Week 1

1. Gospel-driven perseverance, regardless of results; protection from discouragement and strength in persecution
2. Joyful service and faithful prayer for the ministry; growing love of the Church and missionaries of other denominations
3. Long-term faithfulness to stay the course of ministry
4. Many brought to faith and beginning a lifelong journey of discipleship
5. Wisdom and skill in mobilizing and training leaders
6. Continuing growth in grace, leading to a life of self-sacrificing love, repentance, humility, and faith
7. Heart for evangelism; boldness in taking opportunities to share the gospel

Building Relationships Week 2

1. Effective grasp of language and ability to communicate; growing understanding of the way nationals process information, which is different from ours
2. Cultural adjustment, ability to fit in appropriately
3. Freedom in Christ to be transparent and real; willingness to accept people as they are
4. Deepening love for the peoples of the ministry region
5. Grace, humility, friendship, and love in relationships; teachable hearts
6. Encouragement of those in persecution
7. Deepening love for the poor, demonstrating mercy, doing justice

Protecting their Witness Week 3

1. Loving and respectful team relationships, team unity
2. Protection from sin and Satan's attacks
3. Constant abiding in the Word of God; a spirit of loving obedience to the Word
4. Vibrant and consistent prayer life
5. Regular and joyful family worship, and discipling of children
6. Vital, growing, and deep experience of God; personal accountability for spiritual growth
7. Humility, flexibility, and openness to learning; protection against pride

Resources Week 4

1. Financial support
2. Good stewardship of resources
3. More laborers for the field
4. Greater numbers of short-term workers returning for long-term service
5. Power of the Spirit in their ministries
6. Faithful and effective prayer letters to prayer support base, in the midst of overwhelming ministry
7. An effective prayer movement in each region, team, or country for budding churches and teams

Home and Family Week 5

1. Strong marriages and families; saving faith for all MTW children, that they would be faithful disciples
2. Friendships on the field
3. Family issues such as separation from college-age children, aging parents, and other issues at home
4. For missionary kids – issues of transition, schooling and friends; love for team and adoptive peoples
5. Health, safety, and physical well-being; faithfulness in rest, fun, exercise, and eating
6. Safe, adequate, and affordable housing
7. Spiritual nourishment in a cross-cultural context where there may be no church or a small, perhaps immature, church; spiritual nurturing for their children and youth when there may be no ministry for young people

Our Global Family Week 6

1. Godly national church leaders and church-planting facilitators; national church-planting movements
2. Christian marriages and healthy family relationships; children of believers, especially 2nd generation, coming to faith and being disciples
3. Protection for young believers in the faith, so that they may grow strong, protected from societal pressures and false teaching
4. Courage in persecution
5. Wisdom in leadership for national leaders; missions vision to go where North Americans can't
6. True biblical understanding, not compromised by cultural pressures or traditional religions of the region
7. Disciples and disciplers with true hunger for the Word

People in Restricted-Access Countries Week 7

1. Church-planting movement in closed countries
2. Wisdom for national Christians in discipling and encouraging new believers
3. Personal safety of Christians
4. Fellowship for believers
5. Opportunity for believers to share the gospel safely
6. Inroads for bringing the gospel message into the country
7. Availability of Bibles, books, and literature for ministry

The Church at Home Week 8

1. Worldwide missions vision that translates into praying, giving and going
2. Local, cross-cultural heart that welcomes people of all races and socio-economic backgrounds
3. Growing pastors with hearts for missions
4. Enthusiasm for sharing the gospel
5. Community outreach in word and deed
6. Love and peace within the PCA
7. Growth in number and depth

Behind the Scenes Week 9

1. Godly, gifted, competent, heart-for-missions home office staff
2. Financial support of MTW, particularly by PCA churches
3. God's leading in selection of committee members, MTW leader
4. Biblical and effective missions vision, strategies, and methodologies
5. Significant participation in partnerships between MTW, PCA churches and the field
6. Effective use of technology to serve missionaries, churches, and partners around the world
7. Servants' hearts for all MTW staff, hearts that are growing in grace

OUR NATIONAL PARTNERS

In pioneering work, it is often true that the missionary must be directly involved in evangelism and discipleship, but the goal is always to help identify national leaders, church planters, and pastors in order to partner with them. Please pray for the hundreds of nationals who partner with MTW in church-planting ministries. They are key in the growth and development of God's kingdom around the world. Although they face many challenges specific to their own cultures, they also have the same needs as church planters, pastors, and their families in our own culture.

OUR MISSIONARIES

Our missionaries are faithfully taking the light of the gospel to the darkest parts of the world. They do so as broken, fallible, ordinary Christians stepping into the breach. As one missionary put it, "The Great Commission is our personal mission impossible! The only thing that our lost friends truly need—namely the Holy Spirit's divine intervention to bring regeneration—is what we do not have in our power to give." God has chosen to use the prayers of His people—your prayers—to advance the gospel. Please pray for our missionaries, that the Holy Spirit will open doors and hearts for the good news.

NOTE: For their safety, missionaries who work where there is great opposition to the gospel cannot be listed in this directory. But they yearn for your prayers. Please pray for these workers whom we cannot name. Ask God to use them in mighty ways and to protect them and their families.

If you would like to get in touch with a missionary, visit mtw.org/missionaries and send a message from your missionary's profile page.
